Brokers Summoned In Paper Probe

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Print paper brokers from New York and other cities will be summoned before the senate committee investigating the paper situation, decision having been made in an executive session today to subpoena them. The date of their appearance is indefinite.

Chairman Reed said the committee plans to go to the bottom of the print paper situation in an effort to ascertain the cost of production and what profits are being made from the sale of paper, especially through brokers to the small publishers. William Randolph Hearst and Frank A. Munsey, New York publishers, were unable to appear before the committee today and the open hearings were postponed until tomorrow.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sergeant Harry A. Davis, who lost his life last Tuesday evening and whose death has reached many hearts, and if only sympathy were like waves of light, his rays would pour from the hearts of his friends to illumine the gloomy veil of grief which wraps his loved ones in its tender folds. But oh, how powerless, indeed, are love and friendship in the presence of this dark hour, to shed one little drop of consolation, over the fragments of a broken heart, which only time can mend.

We cannot realize the import of such sad tidings, they fill us with unbounded grief and dismay.
What can we say—what can we do, to lighten the hearts of his beloved ones in this bitter hour of supreme agony? We can only commend them to the comforting influence, and with the assurance of our deepest sympathy and warm affection.

Harry, come and give that big salute, Dressed in your military suit.
Come and shine in your place, once more And wait for us before you soar Into the night of nevermore.

Gone! Gone! Out of the shadows of sadness,
Into the sunshine of gladness,
Out of a land very dreary,
Out of a world very weary,
Into joy, into love,
Where there's a Father to love us—
Into our home "Sweet Home"—
SAM CARPENTER
